

Community Relations

Gifts to School Personnel

The giving of gifts to teachers and other school personnel is discouraged. In place of gifts, parents are encouraged to write letters to the Board of Education expressing appreciation for the service of the teacher or other person.