

Students

Student Dress

Although, generally, the Board of Education may not prescribe the manner and mode of dress of students while attending school, the Board of Education can and does require cleanliness and decency in clothing, clothing compatible with safety, clothing that will not interfere with the physical ability to engage in the activities involved in physical education and other activities.

Students may be disciplined if they create commotion, trouble, or confusion in any manner in school, and this includes problems caused by inappropriate clothing.