

Instruction

Homework

The Board of Education encourages homework assignments appropriate in quantity, degree of difficulty, and requirements for outside of school research materials to the age, grade level, and ability of students.

Homework when assigned should be evaluated and returned to the student.